"country dining with a gourmet touch"

The Homestead Restaurant was the former home of the Norton family. O.A. and Fannie Norton raised ten children in the East Texas "Dog Trot" house built in 1913. As Mr. Norton was in the timber business, all the boards in the structure were hand picked by him from heart of pine lumber. The house was located in Hillister on the present site of Hillister Baptist Church.

It was purchased and moved to the present fourteen-acre location by Otho and Emily Sumner in 1977. After complete restoration, The Homestead was opened in March of 1981.
